Old Business:

A tour of Manhasset Bay was held on June 14 as a joint venture with the Town of North Hempstead Waterfront Advisory Commission. Elected officials were invited as guests of the Committee and Commission. At 6am, participants were welcomed to the Manhasset Bay Yacht Club by Commodore Sue Miller for a reception with drinks and light refreshments. Mayor Weitzner of Port Washington North was unable to go on the tour, but did join the reception. At 6:30, the tour boat, a water taxi owned and captained by Matt Meyron, departed. After a light shower the sky cleared and a beautiful sunset was enjoyed. The tour went to the south end of the Bay along the Plandome shore, back out to the mouth on the Great Neck/Kings Point side to just outside the mouth and back along the Sands Point/Manorhaven shoreline. Joel Ziev prepared and distributed a list of 64 points of interest along the shore and gave a description. The tour boat guide also assisted with descriptions of points of interest. MBYC offered coffee and desert to attendees after the boat returned.
